BROADEN YOUR HORIZONS

How far will you go to broaden your horizons? Welcome to our 2024 World Cruise, a journey that will push your travel boundaries farther than ever before. This 132-night voyage explores our planet's most extraordinary destinations, weaving a story of Pacific heritage as it unfolds. Join us and learn how East and West have fused together for millennia, through their changing customs, cuisines and cultures. This is a voyage for those who want to experience the very extremes of the planet. It's time to get out there and go beyond what you thought possible. It's time to broaden your horizons.

1 REMOTE ISLANDS OF THE PACIFIC

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE, SAN FRANCISCO, U.S.A.

Sometimes a journey begins best when one takes the road less travelled. Drink your fill of vitamin sea as we sail to the pearls of Polynesia, where sculpted mountains plunge into sapphire seas and where one island is never enough. Say “aloha” to life in the slow lane in Hawaii before your visit to the cradle of Polynesia – Apia, in Samoa – teaches you the history of why these islands are paradisiacal paradoxes.

OAHU COASTLINE IN HONOLULU, HAWAII

HONOLULU (HAWAII) / 21-22 January

Sitting at the southeastern tip of Oahu, the iconic capital of Hawaii is an urban explorer's dream. From its extensive beaches and unique Arts District to its vibrant waterfront and world-class attractions, Honolulu charms you like no other world capital. Our exclusive event onboard the Battleship Missouri in Pearl Harbour rounds out your visit for a truly unforgettable experience.

LIGHTHOUSE AT NAWILIWILI HARBOR, HAWAII

NAWILIWILI (HAWAII) / 23 January

Surrounded by lush green hills and valleys, the Hawaiian harbour of Nawiliwili is a place where nature still reigns supreme and time drips by slowly. Located on the enchanting island of Kauai, the area surrounding the port offers up a series of captivating hiking trails with incredibly breathtaking panoramas, stunning waterfalls and photography-worthy landscapes.

SAMOA ISLAND, POLYNESIA

APIA (SAMOA) / 02 February

Known as the “cradle of Polynesia”, Samoa is located at the crossroads of the Pacific and, indeed, of history. A key island for ocean exploration, its capital Apia is nestled in a paradise of serene hills and beautiful seafront, including Vaiala Beach and a stretch of coral reef, as traditional Samoan houses stand side by side with 19th century churches and a gorgeous clock tower.

EXCLUSIVE WORLD CRUISE EVENT

AN EVENING ON THE USS MISSOURI

21 JANUARY 2024 - HONOLULU, OAHU (HAWAII)

Step back into the past and celebrate history with your fellow travellers during an unforgettable evening at the U.S.S. Missouri in Pearl Harbour. You'll enjoy a Hawaiian welcome and bespoke dinner in full view of this majestic icon of the seas, accompanied by nostalgic music of the likes of the Andrews Sisters.

USS ARIZONA AND USS MISSOURI MEMORIALS IN FORD ISLAND, PEARL HARBOR, HAWAII

2 NEW ZEALAND FAR AND WIDE

AKAROA VILLAGE ON BANKS PENINSULA, NEW ZEALAND

Flanked by two very different but equally amazing countries, this voyage is all about New Zealand's Māori culture and epic "Lord of the Rings" landscape. Sailing a new route from Fiji, Silver Shadow embraces the west coast of both islands, stopping in iconic and off-the-beaten-track ports on the way. If you've ever wanted to explore the vast wealth of Kiwi culture, now is your chance.

LAUTOKA, FIJI

LAUTOKA (FIJI) / 05-06 February

Lie back and relax as you enjoy the crystal clear waters and picturesque white sand beaches off the west coast of Viti Levu, in the Fiji Islands. Explore areas dotted with traditional thatched huts and verdant landscapes as you stroll in and around the country's second largest city, Lautoka, also known as Sugar City for its vast sugar cane fields stretching as far as the eye can see.

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND

BAY OF ISLANDS (NEW ZEALAND) / 09 February

One of New Zealand's most iconic destinations, the Bay of Islands will captivate you with its turquoise waters and over 140 different islands that are largely untouched and uninhabited. These islands have welcomed explorers of all stripes over the centuries, from the first Māori settlers to more recent permanent British settlements, for a melting pot of customs, traditions and cultures.

SKYLINE OF AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND

AUCKLAND (NEW ZEALAND) / 10-11 February

Auckland, or Tāmaki Makaurau as its known in Māori, is New Zealand's multicultural and multifaceted capital, a green and gorgeous city sprawled across two harbours and 48 volcanic cones that create a unique urban landscape. You'll be immersed in lush native rainforests, rolling hills, dramatic black sand beaches and tranquil bays for a city visit like no other.

3 THE LANDS DOWN UNDER

SYDNEY HARBOUR, AUSTRALIA

Australia is the country that just keeps on giving, whether this is your first or fiftieth visit. This is where millennial cultures meet cosmopolitan cool, where the kaleidoscopic marine life of the Great Barrier Reef meets the ochre plains of Uluru and the red rocks of The Kimberley. Join us as we sail the craggy north coast from Sydney to Bali and prepare for a real taste of the unexpected.

THURSDAY ISLAND, TORRES STRAITS, AUSTRALIA

THURSDAY ISLAND (AUSTRALIA) / 05 March

Set among 273 other small islands in the remote Torres Strait archipelago, Thursday Island is home to a small number of indigenous Torres Strait Islanders. With a population of just over 2,000, it's a tropical paradise like no other, with a laid-back atmosphere that immediately puts you at ease and in the right frame of mind to enjoy the island's pristine waters and lush vegetation.

BROOME, AUSTRALIA

BROOME (AUSTRALIA) / 11-12 March

Located along Australia's wild and untouched Kimberley Coast, Broome will welcome you with stunning beaches and picturesque bays that feature clear turquoise waters and fine sand beaches. Explore the area a little and you'll soon encounter flora and fauna like nowhere else, as the Kimberley region is one of the most unspoiled and uninhabited places in the world.

LOCAL FISHERMAN, INDONESIA

LEMBAR, LOMBOK (INDONESIA) / 15 March

A first for our World Cruise, visiting Lembar Lombok is like stepping into another world. A neighbour of Bali, it shares a similar natural beauty, including pristine beaches and crystal clear waters, while it also showcases the deep Indonesian culture of the area and has a slightly more international feel as a bustling port city with travel in its veins.

EXCLUSIVE WORLD CRUISE - OVERLAND PROGRAMME

A UNIQUE NIGHT OF MAGIC AT ULURU

8-9 MARCH 2024 - ULURU (AUSTRALIA)

Right at the heart of Australia is Uluru, a solitary mountain with desert stretching out away from it as far as the eye can see. The spiritual center for the indigenous population, we'll be treated to a special cultural and dinner event, along with one of the starriest night skies in the world.

4 TEMPLES OF A DISTANT PAST

TRADITIONAL HINDU GATE IN BALI, INDONESIA

The exotic lyricism of Southeast Asia is fabled across the world. Travel far into the heart of wide-ranging coastal cultures, from Bali all the way to Hong Kong. This journey truly embodies the mind, spirit and soul of the region: from the dazzling dichotomy of Singapore to the extraordinary wildlife of Borneo and the happy cacophony that is Ho Chi Minh City. This is where we dive underneath the surface of a truly authentic Asia.

GARDENS BY THE BAY, SINGAPORE

SINGAPORE (SINGAPORE) / 22-23 March

A melting pot of cultures, influences and stories, Singapore's sparkling skyline is home to one of the hottest destinations in Asia. We'll dock right in the middle of the harbour, amongst the many high rises dotting its waterfront, to enjoy all the great food, hospitality, entertainment, culture and nightlife this worldly city has to offer.

HO CHI MINH CITY CENTER AND SAIGON BRIDGE, VIETNAM

HO CHI MINH CITY (VIETNAM) / 29-30 March

We'll continue to cover great distances as we visit Vietnam's most iconic city, Ho Chi Minh. An urban collage full of contrasts, you'll wander alleyways full of small shops and street food stalls to then be surrounded by the smell of incense at any of the city's many ancient temples. A blend of local traditions and French flair round out this historical tapestry of ideas and influences.

PRAYER STICKS INSIDE TEMPLE, HONG KONG

HONG KONG (CHINA) / 03-05 April

You'll come for the shopping and stay for the tea, as you explore a unique city where yesterday and tomorrow meet. We'll enjoy an extended stay to discover as many hidden streets, restaurants and tea parlours as possible and explore the city's beautiful waterfront. A multicultural treasure, this is where you'll find some of the world's best sightseeing, cuisine and nightlife.

EXCLUSIVE WORLD CRUISE - OVERLAND PROGRAMME

WHERE MAJESTIC TEMPLES MEET

19-20 MARCH 2024 - SEMARANG, JAVA (INDONESIA)

Visit the Hindu temple of Prambanan and Buddhist temple of Borobudur on Java, both UNESCO World Heritage Sites. A one night overland gives us the chance to see both impressive attractions, including a sunset dinner event at Prambanan with the temples lit up magically at night.

5 WHERE EAST MEETS WEST

Located on the ancient spice route and bathed in traditional culture, Japan and China will excite even the most jaded of travelers. Overnights in all destinations offer in-depth onshore exploration, allowing you to travel further in the Far East than ever before. Yet heritage is only half the story here; think inspiring modern art, vibrant design and celebrated gastronomy that defines two indefinable countries.

BEIJING (CHINA) / 13-14 April

With a history spanning three millennia, Beijing is China. With a mix of new and old, it takes you far back in time to delight you with a rich blend of things to see, eat and do. From squares to palaces to temples to museums it's an assault on the senses with never enough time to see it all. It's a taste of the authentic China, from cuisine to culture and beyond.

HIROSHIMA (JAPAN) / 17 April

We begin our exploration of Japan (a World Cruise first) with this captivating historical city and its breathtaking views and incredible sites, including Hiroshima Castle and Peace Memorial Museum. Miyajima, also known as Shrine Island is famous for its spectacular Itsukushima shrine that, at high tide, appears to actually levitate.

TOKYO (JAPAN) / 20-21 April

The largest city in the world, Tokyo is a shiny, sparkling, bustling hub of yesterday and tomorrow, as neon-lit skyscrapers and billboards light up the sky and also many of the city's historic temples. From world-class Japanese cuisine to trendy fashion centres to centennial traditions like Kabuki theatre and more, Tokyo has something for absolutely everyone.

EXCLUSIVE WORLD CRUISE EVENT

THE PAST AND FUTURE IN COLOUR

08 APRIL 2024 - SHANGHAI (CHINA)

Enjoy a unique subversive dining experience in a secret location specially created just for you. You'll go on a culinary journey from old Shanghai to modern China bathed in colour, sound and scent, for a truly unforgettable evening.

SKYLINE AND THE HUANGPU RIVER IN SHANGHAI, CHINA

6 A BRIDGE ACROSS TIME

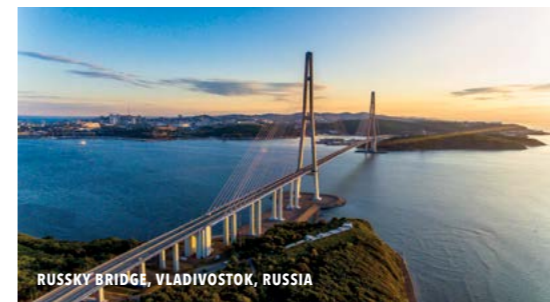

HUMPBACK WHALE IN KODIAK, ALASKA

Budding explorers, it's your time to shine! Go deeper than ever before on a world cruise and join the ranks of the (very) well-travelled by crossing the Bering Sea. But first, finish your exploration of Japan with a semi circumnavigation of the island before sailing to the remote Russian Far East. Underscored by rich culture and masses of charisma, this trip is for those who are ready to brave the forces of nature.

AOMORI (JAPAN) / 23 April

Upon arrival to Aomori you'll marvel at the unusual beauty of Aomori Bay with its singular skyline that includes a triangular-shaped tourist center and bridge. A sparkling waterfront will welcome you to this distant pristine outpost that is home to beautiful water gardens, unique architecture and a startling number of parks and museums. A real hidden gem of the far north of Japan.

VLADIVOSTOK (RUSSIA) / 27-28 April

This remarkable and secret city has always represented the Russian Far East, an extreme of the extremes as it has served as an eastern marker for the country since Czarist times. Full of a history that spans multiple centuries, you'll enjoy both the ancient and modern parts of the city, including cuisine and culture you'll experience nowhere else on the planet.

PETROPAVLOVSK (RUSSIA) / 03-04 May

The gateway to the remote and mysterious Kamchatka region, Petropavlovsk is an explorer's dream, with its rugged natural beauty and magical picturesque landscape. The second largest city in the world unreachable by road, it's a port city like no other, and features fascinating churches, museums and restaurants that will pique your curiosity about this fascinating land.

EXCLUSIVE WORLD CRUISE EVENT - FULL SHIP

A NIGHT AT THE RUSSIAN OPERA

27 APRIL 2024 - VLADIVOSTOK (RUSSIA)

Take your seat in front of the stunning Primorsky Stage of the Mariinsky Theatre and you'll immediately be transported to another place and time as you enjoy a dedicated performance in the world's northernmost opera house. Enjoy pre-show and intermission caviar and champagne for a night like no other.

RUSSIA GOLDEN HORN BRIDGE, VLADIVOSTOK, RUSSIA

EXCLUSIVE WORLD CRUISE EVENT - FULL SHIP

RUSSIAN TRADITION IN KORSAKOV

30 APRIL 2024 - KORSAKOV (RUSSIA)

Cultures come together at this special event that immerses you in tradition and welcomes you in true Russian style. Discover flavours and folklore, including a Cossack performance, and experience how western and eastern influences have shaped this remote part of the country.

FOLKLORE GROUP OF RUSSIAN DANCERS

SAILING THE FAR WEST

HUBBARD GLACIER, ALASKA

Alaska offers to curious cruisers the very best of our planet: mountainous peaks reaching for the heavens, a vibrant heritage that dates back centuries, and abundant wildlife so diverse nothing will ever seem the same again. This profound voyage not only delivers one of the last, authentic travel experiences, but is a fitting finale for those who have come from afar to broaden their horizons amid like-minded friends.

ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA

ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA (U.S.A.) / 13 May

Explore a different side of America as you go back in time to this small point of westernmost Alaska that features a rich mix of Russian, US and indigenous influences, including Native Tlingit culture and hospitality. From bear-spotting to whale-watching to trail hiking, you'll be amazed by the singular wilderness of this remote coastal town.

SNOWCAPPED MOUNTAINS IN JUNEAU, ALASKA

JUNEAU, ALASKA (U.S.A.) / 15-16 May

A frontier town in ways more than one, Juneau is the northernmost US state capital and is the only one located on an international border, with Canada right to the east. Incredible wildlife, both on land and at sea, makes this a fantastic place to visit, as does its vibrant downtown with its old storefronts and quaint 19th century houses left over from the town's early gold rush days.

BRITISH COLUMBIA PARLIAMENT, VICTORIA, CANADA

VICTORIA (CANADA) / 21 May

Our last stop before returning to San Francisco, the enthralling city of Victoria sits at the southernmost tip of Vancouver Island and is the capital of the Canadian province of British Columbia. An incredibly picturesque city, it's surrounded by gorgeous mountain and ocean views, with a beautiful harbour, lovely gardens, quaint boutiques and historic tearooms.

A COMPLIMENTARY EXCURSION IN EVERY PORT
