HISTORY OF THE REEF HOUSE

The Reef House was built as a private residence in 1958. In 1972, Brigadier, The Hon. David Thomson, MC, acquired the property and operated 'Reef House' as a private residence where visitors were treated as personal guests.

The 'Reef House' guests list in the Brigadier's days could often read like an excerpt from 'Who's Who' and included the Prime Minister, various other ministers and celebrities from around Australia and overseas.

Guests helped themselves to drinks from the bar and in the true tradition of an officer's mess, signed chits on an honesty charge back system. There was also a gathering at the end of the day for lively conversation and the Brigadier's rum punch. Carrying on this tradition, today's Reef House offers a Brigadier honesty Bar during the day and at twilight guests gather for punch and canapes hosted by the General Manager
