

Abercrombie & Kent

SYDNEY
SYMPHONY
ORCHESTRA

ROCHFORD
GALLERY

SYMPHONY IN THE VINES

4-6 FEBRUARY 2022 - 24 GUESTS

PRICE: FROM $2,385 PER PERSON TWIN SHARE

Treat yourself to an exclusive weekend away in the Hunter Valley with fine food, wine and orchestral music with the extraordinary Sydney Symphony Orchestra. You'll be hosted by Concertmaster, Andrew Haveron, who will take you on a rich musical journey across two nights. Hear the stories behind the music from the musicians themselves in this intimate setting and meet special guest speaker, Sydney Symphony Orchestra CEO Emma Dunch.

JOURNEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Two nights at Spicer's Vineyards Estate with breakfast daily
- Five-course Gala dinner with paired wines at Spicer's Vineyards Estate
- Exclusive wine master class at Spicer's Vineyards Estate
- Wine tour, tasting and four-course dinner at Brokenwood Wines with premium wines
- Two intimate and small ensemble performances by the Sydney Symphony Orchestra, meet the talented musicians performing for you
- Admire the work of landscape painter Paul McCarthy as he paints on site at Spicer's
- Transport between Hunter Valley locations

Abercrombie & Kent

SYMPHONY IN THE VINES

4-6 FEBRUARY 2022 - A WEEKEND ESCAPE

Savour distinctive regional cuisine at a specially curated gala dinner at your hotel in the heart of the vines. Take part in a wine master class and be treated to an exclusive wine tour with dinner and tastings at Brokenwood Wines, one of the region's most reputable vineyards.

Set amidst rolling vines and native bush, Spicer's Vineyards Estate is reserved exclusively for this special occasion with your elegant accommodation in rooms which each boast their own spa bath. There is a unique opportunity too, to meet celebrated landscape painter Paul McCarthy, represented by Rochfort Gallery, who will be working on site demonstrating his plein air talents and skilful use of colour as he captures the natural setting in singular style.

Abercrombie & Kent